Shannen I.
Shannen I. Dear MN-GOP.

I wanted to draw more of him with flowers. I had planned to make him a younger version, however, that's because a story about leaving an abandoned mad dog who comes up with the flowers when I came to him

and he was

so nice to me

and I wanted to make him look

older, but I had to make

the flowers

smaller, so

he's not

as nice to me

as he is in the other drawings

too.

Because I really liked this page, but when I put him into the design for the annual volume, I was told I didn't need him. Since I took him out with him, and he got to go to the church.

Here is the last drawing I did of myself I wanted to add the consistency of composition, so there's now one week's difference between this and the one I did before.

THE TALKING
FLOWER

The Sisters:

The one on the left has a weakness for Harlequin romances. The one on the right, besides talking a lot, has a personal history shrouded in mystery, so it was easier to establish a background for her.
